STAFFORD SPRINGS, Conn. -- A Stafford Springs family said their dog was shot with a bow and arrow.

Audrey Owens said her dog, Harley, got out of the house through a window. She said he was found on the front lawn.

"There was blood all over the front walkway ... and throughout the house," said Jason Hagenow, who found Harley.

The veterinarian who treated the dog said he believes he was shot with a bow and arrow and that the dog is lucky to have survived.

Four-year-old Harley lost a lot of blood, but according to the veterinarian, is expected to survive.

Police said they are investigating the incident.
